Example Wedding Ceremony Music Selections

Here are some musical selections arranged into a few sample wedding ceremonies.

I thought that you might appreciate having a some examples to look at. Seeing only list after list of musical selections can be overwhelming. Having examples of how various selections can be assembled together could give you some inspiration on how to put together your own wedding ceremony from the many selections you've heard by now.

Each of these example ceremonies is built around a different theme, or sound. Try to figure out what it is!

Each ceremony follows Wedding Music Unveiled's recommendation to avoid overused music. But that doesn't mean to necessarily use obscure music or to avoid music that someone might recognize. So you will notice some familiar, but not overused, pieces included. I think that gives the ceremonies a nice touch. See what you think.

Remember though, these are only examples to get your thinking. Naturally, you'll want to decide what moods and styles you want, based on your preferences and how you'd like to express the occasion's joy, and then pick music that works for you. Don't simply use examples—that won't help you achieve the goal of memorable music in your wedding ceremony that reflects you!

Enjoy!
